

2019 Boca de Oro Festival of Literary Arts & Culture

Third Annual #BOFLAC Returns...

March 2, 2019 • 10:00 am – 9:00 pm

Mark your calendar! March 2nd, 2019 from 10am to 9pm, the city of Santa Ana hosts the largest annual literature and arts festival in Orange County. Boca de Oro Festival celebrates all literary forms, performing and cultural arts. Festival participants invited are professional and established poets, authors, dancers, and musicians from all over Orange County and beyond! The festival serves as a fully immersive experience in the Santa Ana Arts District with festival sessions curated in and around the many historic buildings that are unique to the area. You won't want to miss this event! And you should not miss it because... WE WANT YOU!

We would like to invite you to participate as an Author, Artist, or Curator in #BOFLAC 2019! Have you been published recently or know someone who has? Is there an passionate and unique topic that you'd love to speak on or hear more about from experts in the field? Yes, we have heard and know about you! Now we're out to get your amazing talent here!

As CURATOR, you may produce and arrange any combination of literary cultural arts resulting in a...

1) Festival Workshop based on literary arts. Written, performance, and/or culturally based lasting approx 1hr & 30min;

2) Festival Session. Individual author or panel discussion, and/or artistic showcase (group or individual) lasting approx 1hr & 15min.

Curators are assigned venue space in DT Santa Ana, and festival time slot in which to bring their visions to fruition. Yes, Curators may participate in their own production. (modest stipend offering to assist)*

As AUTHOR/ARTIST, you may participate as an individual or within a group for any workshop, author session, panel, or performance showcase produced by curator. If you wish to be the featured author/artist within any festival activities but can not commit to complete curation of session, please let us know. Additional Curators may be available to assist with production of envisioned session.

The heart of Downtown Santa Ana's Art District will overflow with:

- Challenging, insightful, and fun literary workshops
- Engaging panelists discussing various perspectives, opinions, and sharing knowledge on thought provoking topics
- Children's & Young Adult Lit sessions for budding artists
- Live music & dance on stages throughout Downtown Santa Ana
- Talented performance showcases featuring Poets & Artists from all categories of literary and cultural arts

And so many more performances, exhibits and classes for all to enjoy!

#BOFLAC 2018 was, by all accounts, another successful presentation of vibrant literature & arts in Orange County. It also further solidified Boca de Oro as one of Southern California's most unique and imaginative showcases of Artistic excellence from all backgrounds. We hope you will consider and ultimately make the joyous decision of joining us March 2nd, 2019 for the Boca De Oro Festival of Literary Arts & Culture!!!
